

JON LINDSTROM

A native of the Pacific Northwest, Jon Lindstrom is a 4-time Emmy© Award nominee, and has been seen in studio movies, independent films and literally thousands of hours of TV. Recently-released: Confidential Informant with Nick Stahl, Kate Bosworth and Mel Gibson, Diary Of A Spy and Ten-Cent Daisy. In 2021 he was lauded for his scene-stealing turn as a French villain in the horror feature, A Dark Foe, with Selma Blair and Graham Greene. On television he's recently delivered major roles in Bosch and True Detective. He has performed alongside major stars including Colin Farrell, Brie Larson, Chris Cooper, Rachel McAdams, Alec Baldwin, Vince Vaughn, Wendie Malick, Mandy Patinkin, Diane Lane, Titus Welliver and many more. He is probably best known for his portrayal of twin brothers "Dr. Kevin Collins" and "Ryan Chamberlain" on ABC's, General Hospital.

Never one to rest on his laurels, he is an accomplished, award-winning director, producer, screenwriter, musician, voiceover artist and, come early next year, published author. His debut novel, Hollywood Hustle, will be published by Crooked Lane Books on February 6, 2024.

He is very proud of his work with Kids In The Spotlight (kidsinthespotlight.org), a nonprofit dedicated to encouraging foster kids to tell their stories through film.

After majoring in Theatre and Music at the University of Oregon, he migrated to Los Angeles to study acting with Lee Strasberg, Stella Adler, Jeff Corey, and the teacher he credits most with his successful career, Bob McAndrew.

He divides his time between New York and Los Angeles.

“Jon Lindstrom is majorly threatening...exuding a kind of dominance that’s destined to meet a brutal fate.”
